

Conference and Banquet Manager

Overview

This position provides the right candidate with an excellent opportunity to join Lough Eske Castle Hotel's management team. As the C&B Manager you will have overall responsibility for the C&B Department including all areas of staffing, training and problem solving. You will act as an ambassador for the Hotel ensuring that our Service Standards are maintained and that our guests are placed at the heart of what we do.

Responsibilities include:

- Communicate with guests and colleagues
- Train and motivate your team to ensure our guests enjoy a successful event
- Help recruit high calibre team members
- Set realistic goals and high standards
- Ensure compliance with relevant legislation
- Ensure events are adequately resourced and costed
- Create a great working environment for your team

Minimum Requirements

- Strong leadership qualities
- Passionate about delivering exceptional service
- At least 2 years previous C&B managerial experience or 2 years Food and Beverage managerial experience
- Comprehensive knowledge of the English language in order to read event orders and effectively communicate with guests and employees
- Computer literacy

Preferred requirements

- University degree in hospitality preferred
- Food service sanitation certification
- First aid training preferred

Salary dependent on experience