Poitín

Poitín or poteen is a traditional Irish distilled, highly alcoholic beverage (60%-90% ABV).

Poitín was traditionally distilled in a small pot still and the term is a diminutive of the Irish word pota, meaning "pot".

It is traditionally distilled from malted barley, grain, potatoes or whey.

Teeling Poitin € 7.50

Micil Poitin € 9.00

Irish moonshine, along with all other private distillation not specifically licensed by the state, was outlawed in 1661.

On 7 March 1997, the Irish Revenue Commissioners withdrew their opposition to Poitín being sold under license in the Republic of Ireland.

Bushmills Malt 16yr - 3 Wood Single Malt	€12.50
--	--------

The 16 year old Bushmills builds on the soft, smoothness of the 10 year old and adds some very nice fruity characters. The whiskey is initially aged separately for 15 years in both bourbon and sherry casks then these are married together into port wood for around a year of extra finishing.

Bushmills 21yr Single Malt	€19.50
----------------------------	--------

Bushmills Single Malt Whiskey 21 year old is aged for a minimum of 19 years in former Oloroso Sherry and Bourbon-seasoned casks, then transferred into Madeira casks for a further 2 years. The result is a whiskey awarded 'Best Irish Single Malt 2013'. It has huge depth that interweaves dried fruit flavors with spicy, aromatic

maltiness and subtle nutty raisins notes

Irish Distillers was formed in 1966 following the merger of three of the great Irish Whiskey distillers.

John Jameson & Sons, established in Dublin in 1780; Powers & Sons, who were founded in Dublin in 1791 and The Cork Distillery whose origins date back to 1820. The Distillery then moved to Midlton, Cork after 200 years so that they could expand and fulfil their full potential.

Jura

Jury 10yr €10.80

In the early 1700's the Campbells of Jura evicted a wise old seeress. Bristling with resentment, she prophesied that the last Campbell to leave the island would be one-eyed with his belongings carried in a cart drawn by a lone white horse. In 1938 it came true when Charles Campbell, blind in one eye from the Great War, led his white horse to the old pier for the last time. Just like Jura, Prophecy is a dram that's steeped in stories, and every drop has a different tale to tell.
